

Freight House Farmers' Market Mission Statement

The Freight House Farmers' Market is organized exclusively for the purpose of providing local market vendors a safe and fair environment in which to conduct lawful business transactions while offering the community access to the freshest, highest quality seasonal plants, produce, and herbs available in the Quad City area and surrounding states, home made food products, high quality arts and crafts at responsible prices while encouraging direct communication between vendors and consumers, supporting the Buy Fresh movement, fostering social gatherings, and interaction, offering programming, strengthening community spirit through the marketplace while boosting the local economy by drawing residents and visitors to the downtown Mississippi riverfront.